Published Every Weekday Afternoon. Subscriptions: One Year, $3; One Month, 25 cts: Single Copy, 1 cent.

Members of the Publishers' Press.—The latest telegraphic news from all parts of the world are reserved by the Daily Times up to the hour of going te press.

Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1905. The average daily circulation of the

Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was 3,665 copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

It is deeply significant that a Montpelier merchant should be advertising "tanks."

Baron Komura is ill just at present, and can't start for Japan right off. Perhaps it is just as well.

With the President absent from the Centennial celebration at Montpelier there will be quite a gap, but the festivities will go on just the same. The arrangements promise to be attractive, with a celebration worthy of the ocea-

The plunge of the car from the New York elevated railroad was the first |= instance of the kind in 34 years, but and that an innocent man was put to it is not the first time that passengers death for a crime, the contemplation of have conjured up in their minds a pic- which drove the real murderer to end ture of a terrible fatality should the his miserable existence by his own vehicles in which they were travelling hand. However, his act of self-destrucjump the guard at the side.

An exchange mentions the fact that way make amends for the terrible misa base ball pitcher who was once getting take. $5,000 a season is now grubbing for $1.50 per day. Had it not been for the usual habits of the professional ball own $1.50 men. They are too apt to be free with their money.

THE CHANCE FOR ERROR.

sion of a murderer that an innocent man was hanged for his crime, is true, there is furnished to us a terrible object won a pronounced success. Barre has lesson. The story lacks the stamp of certainty to make it a most powerful in a long time. Of the solists in the wedge against capital punishment, but most notable. She has a charming it bears the indications of being true.

A man weighed down by remorse for a crime committed thirty years before Estelle was another pleasing soloist, breaks down and decides to end a miserable existence. He writes a letter stephen Stott as Francois. Frank M. confessing that he murdered a young woman in Ohio, a crime for which a tramp was hanged in the Youngstown, Ohio iail. The tramp he footbilled Ohio, jail. The tramp, by a fortuitous laughter when they occupied the stage. of the place where the pureder was these two and Oren Hooper and Arthur of the place where the murder was committed. Circumstantial evidence pointed toward him as the probable the evening. The work of the chorus murderer. He was arrested on the was particularly effective. strength of the circumstance, and he was convicted on circumstantial evidence. He was hanged on no better pretext than the evidence which points toward a man as the probable murderer. A man innocent of the crime paid the penalty for another's crime. The real murderer went seet free. Finally the attraction at the opera house. pangs of remorse became so compelling that he was forced to make a confession, providing immediately, however, that he should place himself beyond the pale of the law.

The story, of course, lacks substantiation, it lacks proof that the alleged confession was not the product of a disordered brain, that it was not the complex problems of keeping house, act of a sensation-monger. But the cooking suitable and economical dishes murder was committed, and the tramp and not going beyond the limits of a modest pocketbook. The terrors that confront the inexperienced housekeeper are removed by the Household Department of the Boston Daily Globe. In of the story is left to judge for himself. But the indications are that the self. But the indications are that the tardily made confession is not a hoax Boston Globe. Have it at your home

The Top Coat of last season has had to take to the woods to conceal its shortcomings. Here are the finest specimens of the new Fall crop-liberal in length, liberal in cloth, liberal in price. From $10 to $24

> WE CLEAN, PRESS AND REPAIR CLOTHING.

174 Main Street, Barre, Vt.

tion could not bring back the life of the innocent man, nor could it in any players he might have been bossing his Princess Chic Scores at the Opera House -Attractions Coming.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Princess Chie," though not a new production, received its first presentation in Barre at the opera house last Provided that the story sent out from North Dakota and printed in yesterday's papers, regarding the confestors, has assembled a very competent and even company of singers and come dians who gave a thoroughly enjoyable most notable. She has a charming so-S. Hall, the vagabonds, in the third West's Jubilee Minstrels will appear at the opera house Tuesday evening, Sept. 19.

Howe's Moving Pictures will be shown at the opera house tomorrow evening.

"Under Southern Skies" is an early

VALUABLE WEDDING PRESENT.

A Gift That Many Brides Would Greatly Appreciate.

It is no wonder that a great many this hint there is a practical suggestion for a useful wedding present.

every day.

NEW STOCK

KODAKS

$5.00 to $20.00

BROWNIES

$1.00 to $9.00

See the folding Brownie

Cameras. Big value for a little money. They make

RED CROSS PHARMACY

MILES' GRANITE BLOCK.

good pictures, too.

New Business!

This Bank solicits new accounts because it is capable of rendering the BEST banking secvice and accommodation, and because it offers that large measure of SECURITY that appeals to the prudent and conservative people of the community.

We are constantly opening NEW ACCOUNTS. We would like to open one in your name.

Accounts received subject to check.

Interest paid on Savings Ac-

Capital$75,000.00

Granite

AND TRUST COMPANY, BARRE, VERMONT.

THE CLARK FAMILY.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Of Which the Late William Clark Was the Last Surviving Member.

Editor Times: The announcement in our issue of the 5th of the burial of William Clark awakens a reminis-cent mood, for he was the last surviving member in this section of a family which has from its earliest history been prominently identified with those inerests which make for the highest good of the community and the recollection of such may profitably be recalled.
Francis Clark, Sr., with his wife and two children came to Barre in 1799, the same year in which was organized the church of which members of his family for three generations were elected to the office of deacon. He erected his log house and began clearing the forests for the farm which was tilled by himself and sons for nearly a century. Of the three children born to him one son, William, graduated at Dartmouth, studied theology, and was one of the early missionaries sent by the A. B. F. M. to Turkey. Later he was for several years United States consul at Milan, lially. One daughter married Stillman Wood, long a prominent figure in the affairs of the town, and whose memory is perpetuated by one of the substantial business blocks which characterized the later growth of Barre. One married Nathaniel Dodge, who bought the "Tanner" French tannery and later carried n the business with Mr. Wood, their

A. SMITH & BRO.

Hosiery Sale!

To close the remaining lot on hand of the 25c Cashmere Woolen Hose at only per pair. Come before they are all gone.

Ladies' Rubbers!

We have a large lot of Ladies' Rubbers that we shall close out this week at only

39c

Men's Clothing!

A large lot of high grade fabrics, latest Fall patterns, will be made up by us for the insignificant low price of $12.95

You would consider yourself well treated at the custom tailor's price of $20.00 for this Suit. Workmanship guaranteed. The bargain of the century. Come in and look them over.

& BRO.

MEN'S OUTFITTERS Miles Granite Block,

Barre, - - Vermont

Undersold

The Vaughan Store

We Sell Goods Cheaper for Equal Qualities.

Blankets! Table Linens! Cottons!

To open Fall business with a rush we place on sale for this week Blankets, Table Linen, Linen Towels, Wool Flannel, 36 inch Bleached Cotton and Cotton Diaper at less than market value.

BLANKET SALE.

LINEN SALE.

Two hundred Ten-quarter Two pieces 64 inch Pure Lin-49c, 65c for 55c and 75c for of the $1.00 quality for 65c per yard.

Fifty Ten-quarter White Towels-Twenty dozen Lin- Cotton, 18, 20, 22 and 24-inches Blankets 65c for 55c 75c for en Towels, English size, only wide, sold this week at the pres-

SALE OF COTTON.

Undersold

Twenty pieces 36 inch Bleach-Grey Blankets. Note the prices: en Table Damask, 75c quality ed Cotton, the 9c quality, for 55c quality for 45c, 59c for for 55c. Two pieces 64-inch this week's sale at only 7c per > Red Star Antiseptic Diaper ent cost value.

One case of Wool Flannel just received, bought before the advance in price. Pure White Flannel for 25c, 29c, 35c and 48c per yard. Also Blue Mixed, Navy and Red Flannel.

WATCH THIS SPACE FOR SATURDAY'S SALE.

standing just north of King's jewelry store and he, together with Willis Keith, who also married a daughter of Francis Clark and who lived in a house then standing on the present site of the Morse block, owned all of the land now occupied by the depots, the railroad and the stone sheds with the other buildings on both sides of Granite street between the railroad and the Willis Keith and his wife, Dorcas Clark, had four sons, who when young nen went west and became prosperous usiness men and honored citizens in the communities where they located. The oldest, Col. Abijah Keith, went to California in 1848, Returning to Vermont he located in Montpelier, represented that town in the legislature was senior aide to Gov. Fairbanks, and assisted in organizing the 1st Vermont regiment for the war, later serving on the staff of Major General H. C. Wright. He went to Chicago in 1864, where he died in 1890, when one wrote of him: "Throughout life he was a patriotic citizen, an upright merchant, and a faithful friend."

The second Francis Clark was a deacon of his church and a recognized leader in all religious, educational and philanthropic movements in the city of Cleve-land, Ohio.

The first periodical issued from a press in Barre was printed by a grand-son of Francis Clark, Charles Clark, Jr., during the year 1871, the publica-tion being called the "Barre Times." The copy for the twelve issues was prepared or written by Mr. Stillman Wood, in whose employ as clerk in the post office and drug store young Clark then was, Francis Clark, Jr., succeeded his father upon the farm and continued to live on it until sometime about 1873, when he was succeeded by his son, William, who with the exception of three years service in the war of the Rebellion as a member of Co. B, 10th Vt. Vol., and in the band connected with that regiment, had passed his life up to that time on the home farm, which he con-tinued to occupy until 1884, when he moved to the village, erecting a house on Clark street and establishing a Green House, which he conducted for some ten years. The Clark family were all musical, and for three quarters of a cen-tury there was but little time in which the voice of some member of it did not carry a leading part in the church choir. William was for more than twenty years identified with it and for ten years conducted the singing both in the church and the Sunday school In seeking the means of regaining his health, which had been impaired by his army service, he became interested in Christian Science. He was for a time a student in the Massachusetts Metaphysical College, and later was associated with Mrs. Eddy at Concord. It was largely owing to his endeavors that the Christian Science society in Barre' was organized.

At the close of the Spanish American war he joined a colony which settled in Cuba, and his life since then had been spent chiefly in that island. Early this summer he returned to Vermont, his health very much impaired, and it steadily declined until the end, Mr. Clark was a member of Crandall Post, G. A. R., was commander for two years, and held the office of assistant inspector for one year. His wife, who was Emma Wheaton, a daughter of the late Erastus Wheaton and a sister of Geo. E. C. Wheaton of Barre town, died about a year ago. They had no children.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

"I hear that you really take pumpkins Thear that you really take pumpkins for subscriptions to your paper," drawled the old farmer, who had mounted the winding stairs to the editorial rooms of the rural paper.

"For a while," replied the editor.

"Bout how long?"

"Until the autumn poets stop sending in poems. We pay them off in pumpkins."—Chicago News.

The summer days will soon be gone, The autumn breezes soon will blow, But every day that fades away

-Chicago Record-Herald.

tannery occupying the ground now known as Central Place, and that on which the old town hall building stands. Afterwards Mr. Dodge occupied a house

Ladies' Coats!

If you are a student of style and a fair judge of good tailoring and of quality, we have Coats that will appeal to you-in fact we think we have those that will settle the Coat-buying question in your mind. We have a hundred new ones to select from.

Ladies' Furs!

Furs of this store's kind with this store's prices have made this one of the best Fur-buying places in this vicinity. The new stock is here and your inspection is solicited.

The Perley E. Pope Co.,

(Taplin's Old Store)

Corner Main and State Streets, Montpelier, Vermont.

MICHIGAN CANNING PEACHES.

We have a fine lot of Peaches for canning, just in, and the price is only $1.10 per crate.

Cabbage per pound 3c Nice, large Spanish Onions, per pound 5c

H. J. Smith's Cash Market,

367 North Main Street. Barre, Vermont.

An Advertisement in the Times will bring sure results.

YOU DO NOT

Need any clinker hooks with the famous, genuine Round Oak Heating Stove, for it does not make any clinkers. Just shaking the grate cleans the entire bottom of the fire alike.

double fire pot and conecenter grate with rim dis-We are pleased to show this superior feature in the genuine Round Oak and explain why it burns all kinds of fuel satisfactorily,

When a stove becomes the most popular and has the largest sale of any stove known, there are good reasons back of it, and we think before you buy a stove you ought to know them.

We handle Round Oaks because we know they are good - good in workmanship, good in material, and better than all others when you put a fire in and start them to work. They are so different in spite of the fact that the imitations look like them. To be certain, see the name "Round Oak" on the leg.

C. W. Averill & Co.,

81 No. Main Street, - Barre, Vt.

"Now, Fritz, we will go through the Round Oak shops and you shall see how much care and pains we take to make Round Oak Stoves, Ranges and Furnaces good."

The Optimist.

Must bring us nearer to next May, With all it promises, you know.

And then the girl you love will lose Her heart to some big bully who's Just made a touchdown with the ball.

This is thege

Useful.

LOOKING FORWARD.

The Pessimist. Yes, summer soon must peter out And soon the russet leaves will fall